UNDERGRADUATE STUDY IN MATHEMATICS

The School of Mathematics offers programs leading to two undergraduate degrees:

- the Bachelor of Science in Applied Mathematics and
- the Bachelor of Science in Discrete Mathematics.

Both programs emphasize the study of core mathematics as well as its applications. They provide excellent preparation for employment, as well as graduate study in mathematics and related fields.