A minor in psychology is available to all non-psychology majors. The minor program provides a foundation in research methods and statistics and allows the student to take upper level courses in various areas of psychology. This minor is valuable for students who wish to have a background in psychology while pursuing other majors and considering graduate school in psychology or related fields. Further information is available on the School's web site.

Electives

Select 15-18 credit hours of electives, at least 12 of which are upper-division. ³

¹ If PSYC 2015 is counted as credit toward another program then it cannot be counted towards the psychology minor. In this case 15 credit hours of Psychology at or above the 3000 level must be taken to complete the psychology minor.

² If PSYC 2020 is not taken (i.e., because some other statistics class has been allowed to replace it), then 15 credit hours of Psychology at or above the 3000 level must be taken to complete the psychology minor.

³ Select at least 12 credit hours of upper-division coursework (numbered 3000 or above).

Excluded Courses

Courses to be excluded from the minor include:

- PSYC 3031 Experimental Analysis of Behavior ⁴
- PSYC 4031 Applied Experimental Psychology ⁴
- All Special Topics Courses
- All Special Problems Courses
- All Undergraduate Research Courses such as:
  - PSYC 2699 Undergraduate Research 1-12
  - PSYC 4699 Undergraduate Research 1-12

The minor will not appear on the diploma. Minors may not be conferred retroactively upon students who have graduated.

- A maximum of 6 credit hours of Special Topics courses may be included in a minor program or the student may complete 3 credit hours of Special Topics and 3 credit hours of either Special Problems.
- A maximum of 3 credit hours of transfer credit may be used to satisfy the course requirements for a minor. This includes courses taken at another institution or credit earned through the AP or IB program, assuming the scores meet Georgia Tech minimum standards.
- A course may not be used to satisfy the requirements of more than one minor or certificate.
