GRADUATE ADMISSIONS

Prospective graduate students may find information and apply for admission by visiting the Graduate Education website. This site provides information regarding Institute-level admission requirements, admission information for individual graduate programs, and information for new and current graduate students.

- Admissions Process and Information
- Requesting Application Change
- English Proficiency for International Students
- Academic Documents and Credential Evaluations
- Orientation - New Students
- Readmission
- Transfer of Credit
- Types of Standing