

GLOBAL MEDIA AND CULTURES (GMC)

GMC 6001. Introduction to Global Media and Cultures. 3 Credit Hours.

An introduction to key concepts, theories, histories, practices, and methodologies that are relevant to the study of global media and cultures.

GMC 6002. Research Methodologies. 1 Credit Hour.

This course provides an overview of research methods with special emphasis on application to global media and culture.

GMC 6003. Prof Portfolio Media. 2 Credit Hours.

Requires students to reflect academically, culturally and professionally on what they have learned and how to apply that to the professional sphere.

GMC 6005. Professional Portfolio. 3 Credit Hours.

Requires students to reflect academically, culturally, and professionally on what they have learned and how to apply that to the professional sphere.

GMC 8803. Special Topics. 3 Credit Hours.

Special Topics.