UNDERGRADUATE EMBEDDED CERTIFICATE IN AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

Requirements

The Certificate in African-American Studies, offered jointly by the School of History and Sociology and the School of Literature, Media, and Communication, recognizes the achievement of concentrated knowledge in a subject area. This certificate allows students to choose courses on such topics as African-American history, southern history, twentieth-century literature and history, the immigrant experience, and explorations of race in America.

- Twelve hours of appropriate HTS and LMC courses, approved by the adviser (see course list below for specific requirements).
- Nine of the twelve hours must be at the 3000 level or above.
- At least one course must be taken from HTS and one from LMC.
- One course from outside HTS and LMC may be counted toward the certificate, with approval of the adviser.
- All courses must be taken on a letter-grade basis, and a grade of C or better must be received in each course.
- Students majoring in HTS or LMC may not count courses toward the certificate that are required by their majors.
